

PRESS RELEASE

Date: May 26, 2008

RE: NEW MANAGEMENT AT BOGARD'S IN DOWNTOWN MOBERLY

Norman Perkins and Carson Baxter, owners of the Moberly Antique Mall and Bogard's in downtown Moberly are pleased to announce that they are handing over management of their store, Bogards (213 W. Reed), to Bob and Charlotte Rudd of Paris MO. Although Perkins and Baxter will retain ownership of Bogard's, day-to-day management and operations will be carried out by Mr. and Mrs. Rudd. Bob and Charlotte bring 20 years of antique collecting to downtown Moberly! They specialize in Glassware including; Carnival, Depression, Crystal and Fenton. They also have an extensive pottery, primitive and kitchen collectibles in their fabulous inventory. This change in management will allow Norman and Carson to spend more time at the Moberly Antique Mall, working diligently on expansion plans as well as allowing them to devote more time to future retail endeavors in Moberly. Please stop in and welcome Bob and Charlotte to downtown. Beginning June 2, 2008, Bogard's store hours will be Monday 12-5, Tue-Thurs (closed), Friday 12-5, Saturday 10-5, Sunday 1-4. (660) 269-9940